Additional information regarding attempted service, etc:

On October 29, 2014, deponent also enclosed a copy of the summons and complaint in a postpaid sealed wrapper properly addressed to the defendant at the defendant's last known address, 41-66 Forley Street, Elmhurst, NY 11373, and deposited said wrapper in an official depository under the exclusive care and custody of the United States Postal Service. The envelope bore the legend "personal and confidential" and did not indicate on the outside thereof, by return address or otherwise, that the communication was from an attorney or concerned an action against the defendant. At the time service was effected we were advised that Yolanda Valdez is not involved in any military service.
